THE DAILY BULLETIN

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 17, 1884.

The late Rt. Rev. Bishop A. M. Toebe has his life insured for $10,000.

The total losses by the recent Wall street failures are estimated to be $20,000,000.

It is predicted that there will be but few contested seats in the Republican Convention at Chicago.

The Democratic joint caucus at Baton Rouge nominated J. B. Easton for United States Senator to succeed Senator Jones.

Manova, it is said, will manipulate the Virginia and North Carolina delegations in the Republican convention at Chicago.

Work is proceeding rapidly with the railway tunnel under the Mersey. The tunnel will be three and one eighth miles in length.

At Washington a bill has been reported to the House appropriating $100,000 for the relief of sufferers by the flood in the Lower Mississippi.

The President, by proclamation, has restored to the public domain 307,000 acres of land in New Mexico, set apart for an Apache reservation.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals has reversed judgment in the case of Joseph John, sentenced to be hung for the murder of Geo. Richards, in Logan County.

The effort will be made on Monday next to pass the bill to retire Gen. Grant under a suspension of three years. There will be opposition, but it will be feeble.

DELEGATES to the Chicago Anti-Monopolist Convention from New York, Maryland and the District of Columbia have issued a protest against the nomination of Butler.

NEARLY all of the Virginia delegation to the Democratic convention have been interviewed. Four-fifths of them express a preference for Tilden if he is a candidate. Bayard has a few of the delegates.

RECENT events seem to indicate that while Congress is placing General Grant on the retired list, it should also appoint a guardian for him. He may have been a good General and a President of ability, but he cannot take care of his money. His character as a financier is ruined.

AMONG the heaviest losers by the failure of Grant & Ward is ex-Senator Chaffee, of Colorado, father-in-law of "Back" Grant. Chaffee gave his daughter $400,000 as a bridal present, lost $100,000 on his own speculation and deposited the remainder of his $1,000,000 with the firm and now finds himself penniless.

The reported threatened strike of 6,000 railroad miners in the Pittsburgh district is untrue, but 800 employed in the mines at DuBois, Pa., have struck against the screen system, and a strike 1,500 at Canton, O., seems inevitable. In fact, the strike mania seems to be spreading all over the Pennsylvania and Ohio coal fields.

The Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot says: The present low price of grain is not encouraging to the American farmer and the prospects of the demand from other countries are not such as to dispel apprehensions of a further decline. Estimates are made of a probable demand on this country of 177,000,000 bushels during the next year against 108,000,000 from all other competing wheat growing regions, a proportion that is not likely to be realized considering the disposition of European purchasers to buy where they can have some of the advantages of reciprocal trade.

The liberal tariff policy which has made it disadvantageous for the English, who have been the best customers, to depend upon this country for their wheat supply, has induced them to look for the indispensable cereal in markets where the advantage is not so near being entirely on the side of the seller. Within the last five years, principally through the efforts of Earl Ripon, commercial arrangements affording mutual advantage have been made with India by which English wheat purchasers have been encouraged to buy in that market.

The result is that within the time above mentioned the export of India wheat to England has trebled in amount while that from America is correspondingly declining. Australia is also, for similar reasons, assisting in crowding the American product from the English market.

Covington Commonwealth.
Colonel (late) Wharton, who was one of our illustrious readiness with which Kentucky Federal office-holders adopt their opinions to changing circumstances: "The way Phelps struck out reminds me very much of the boys who were caught under a sudden change of administration in our State. They happened to be in office on fat salaries, but their policies didn't consist with the tidal wave. One of them took a view of the situation, and remarked: 'boys it's a pretty sharp turn, but I reckon we'll have to make it!'"

WOOLEN MILLS BURNED.

A Number of Girls Injured and Probably Two Lives Lost.

WORCESTER, Mass., May 17.—At 9 p. m. a fire broke out in the Pakaschong Mills. Three buildings with their stock and machinery were totally destroyed. Loss, $150,000. The mills were running night and day. A large number of girls were at work at the time. The doors were locked and eleven were seriously injured and two reported hurt to death. Their remains have not been found. The mills were located at South Worcester, near City College, and were owned by George Crompton and operated by Joseph Sargent, Jr., as agent. In less than an hour after the breaking out of the flames, the three mills were in ruins. The mills were used for the manufacture of worsted yarns and brunette. Two were of brick and one of wood. They were fenced in true mill style fashion, and no access or entrance except at regular hours and by permission of the watchman. The principal mill was three stories high. To-night about sixty operatives, the majority of them females, were employed. The windows and doors were all fastened. When the alarm sounded a scene of the wildest confusion ensued. The blast was first discovered in the picker room. The mill was lighted by electricity. The dynamo, which carried the electric current for the light was run by a belt from the main shafting. This belt caught fire, and burning, cut off the source of light, plunging the buildings in darkness except as they were lighted by the glare of the fire. The operatives rushed to the scene to find that their services were only useful to save life and prevent the spreading of the flames. The watchman could not be found and the doors and other gates were locked. The men, women and children went to work with their picks and were obliged to break through the windows and leap to the ground from the second and third stories. Many were injured by jumping, others had a narrow escape from the fire. Those Martin, twenty-four years old, had been in the service in saving women and girls. He discovered an exit and remained helping them out and burying them to the yard, until he was badly burned and obliged to leave his place. He then rushed from the building and plunged into the stream running through the yard. He was rescued and is in a critical condition. A partial list of the wounded include the following: Sarah and Mary Atkins, both daughters of the Chief of Police, each a leg and arm broken; Patrick Stanton, boss spinner, sprains and bruises; Thomas, night Superintendent, arm broken; Alice Carberry, Mary Smith, Nannie Sullivan, Mary Kirby, and Alice Delany, more or less bruised and sprained. Bridget Sheehan and Kate Flynn were the most seriously injured, having received bruises about the back.

LAST TRIBUTE.

Impressive Funeral Services of the Celebrated Lawyer, O'Connor.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Three thousand people gathered at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Cathedral, Fourth avenue, this morning to pay a last tribute of respect to the remains of Charles O'Connor, the great lawyer. Among the prominent persons present were Roscoe Conkling, Wm. M. Everts, John Graham, Mr. O'Connor's late associate Chief Justice, Noah Davis, and Judges Daniels, Barrett, Lawrence and Donohue, of the Supreme Court; Chief Justice Seligman, Judge Van Orst, Fredman, Ingraham, and O'Griffin, of the Superior Court, and many other eminent jurists. The coffin containing the remains were placed at the head of the centre aisle, and in the pews to the right and left sat the friends of the deceased. The services were of the most impressive nature. Solemn high mass was celebrated by Archbishop Corrigan. Major Preston delivered a eulogy. There were several elegant floral offerings. The body was taken to the vault in the old cathedral at Mot Street where they were deposited beside the remains of Mr. O'Connor's father.

KILLED HIS MAN.

Heroic Action of a Boy in Defense of His Mother.

BENHART, May 17.—Treasurer Anderson, of a school district south of this city, drew $500 to build a schoolhouse. While away from home where he left his wife and little boy, two men called at the house and demanded entrance, which was refused by Mrs. Anderson. The door was closed and locked, but the intruders succeeded in prying it partly open and pointing revolvers in the opening. They said they had come for the money. There was in the house, and requested that it be handed over. The little son, with considerable pluck, grabbed the shotgun and discharged the contents into the right breast and shoulder of one of the robbers, and was about to give him another dose when his mother prevented him. The wounded man fell into the arms of his companion who made his escape, taking his wounded comrade with him. The body of the robber was found near the spot, he having died soon after being shot.

Congressional Summary.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—In the House, Mr. Willis (R.), from the Committee on Rivers and Harbors, reported back the River and Harbor Appropriation bill, and it was passed on to the calendar. The only material change made since he recommended the bill is the increase of the appropriation for the Delaware River, from $150,000 to $200,000.

The morning hour having been disposed of, Mr. McMahon (Tenn.), moved to go into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar. This motion was antagonized by the Appropriation Committee, and was disagreed to in the House; and then, on motion of Mr. Burns (Mo.), the House went into Committee on the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill. Mr. Cannon's amendment respecting the incidental consular and expenses were rejected by 40 to 50.

A Terrible Death.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 17.—A frightful accident occurred at the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Co.'s Keystone Colliery, at Locustville, this noon. Fred Dollman, the hoisting engineer at the slope, having finished his dinner, proceeded to make an examination of the machinery, and while passing over the flues their covering caved in precipitating Dollman into the hot fluid at a distance of two or three feet where he was roasted to death. Dollman was thirty-five years old.

Cuticura
THE GREAT SKIN CURE

"THOUSANDS OF LETTERS in our possession, and the experience of seventy years, have proved that Cuticura is the only remedy for the sufferer for years with blood and skin eruptions, such as eczema, psoriasis, and places by reason of my disgusting humors. I have been cured by Cuticura. I have used hundreds of dollars and got no real relief until I used CUTICURA. It cured me of my blood purifier, internally, and CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, the great skin cure and skin beautifiers, externally, which have cured me and is my skin and blood pure as a child."

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.
James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, La., writes: "I was afflicted with eczema, or salt rheum, on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years, and was almost blind by reason of my disgusting humors. I became a mere wreck. At times could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed, was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1881 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them and was perfectly cured. I have sworn to before U. S. Court, J. D. Crawford."

STILL MORE SO.
Will McDonald, 242 Dearborn Street, Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of eczema, or salt rheum, on head, neck, face, arms, and legs for seventeen years, and was almost blind by reason of my disgusting humors. I became a mere wreck. At times could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed, was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1881 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them and was perfectly cured. I have sworn to before U. S. Court, J. D. Crawford."

MORE WONDERFUL YET.
H. E. Carpenter, Henderson, Ky., cured of psoriasis or leprosy, of twenty years' standing by CUTICURA REMEDIES. The most wonderful cure on record. A dispensary of CUTICURA REMEDIES, daily. Physicians and friends thought he had died. He is now a happy man, a justice of the peace and Henderson's mayor.

That's nothing. You can see double the number on any square on Second street, any day in this city, at any time of the day. The city is thoroughly infested with the filthy brute and the thoroughfares are getting to be more filthy every day. To-day appears a call upon Mr. L. W. Galbraith to become a candidate for School Commissioner at the ensuing August election. This call is signed by thirteen of the Magistrates of the county, and it will be seen that he has a sufficient majority to have been elected if the law had not been recently changed as to the mode of electing the Commissioner. Mr. Galbraith, without disparaging the qualifications of others, is peculiarly fitted for the position he is seeking and if elected will fill it with ability. He is an old experienced teacher, has a finished education, and manifests always a deep interest in everything pertaining to the cause of education.

The Court of Claims that convened last Monday finished the business before them and adjourned Friday afternoon. The following is the levy made for county tax for the present year, viz:
Tarpaper and bridge tax... 28 cts on $100
Sinking fund... 25 cts on $100
Deficit... 10 cts on $100
Rail fund... 15 cts on $100
Infantry fund... 15 cts on $100
Total county levy... 83 cts on $100
The State levy amounts to... 55 cts on $100
Total levy... 138 cts on $100
The total levy last year was $117 on $100. The increase this year is due to the additional levy made by the State. The county levy this year is two cents less than it was last. Two dollars was levied on each white and colored tithes as the poll tax for the present year.

The Farmer Still Tills the Soil.

A sudden change from poverty to wealth is apt to turn men's heads, but it has not proved to be so with Mr. Elbert S. Montgomery, of Mt. Olivet, Ky., who last week received here, through the First National Bank, $15,000, as the holder of one-fifth of ticket No. 88,800, which drew the capital prize in the April drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, costing him but $1. He is at home pursuing the even tenor of his way as a farmer, and shows a disposition to use wisely the money dame fortune has bestowed upon him. When the public was inclined to doubt if he would receive the money he was offered, by responsible parties, the amount called for, less two per cent, but knowing the integrity of the Louisiana State Lottery management, he declined the offer and has received $15,000 in full. It was the first lottery ticket he ever held in his life, and he paid for it the sum of $1.—Mayville (Ky.) BULLETIN, April 22.

ADJACENT COUNTIES.

VANCOVER, LEWIS COUNTY.
Dr. N. W. Tracy began his temperance work here on Tuesday evening of this week. The rain fell in torrents but there was a good crowd of friends, and the meeting was well attended and the court house was full and overflowing. As one result one hundred and thirty-five persons have signed the pledge of total abstinence. There also seems to be quite a demand for a division of the Sons of Temperance. The lecturing is one of the highest terms of approval by the people. Many of our best citizens are hearty in the movement.

A early looking man was skulking past the Texas Siftings office, in Austin. The most peculiar feature of his ragged attire was a straw hat that had no crown and very little of the brim. The old man was standing on the sidewalk, snickered right out. The sulky driver clutched his stick, and walking up to old Mose, asked in thundering tones:
"Was yer smilin' about dis heaz hat?"
"Why, yes, your son, nighat. He's my lavender hat. You hant got enough hat for a healthy nighat like me to laugh at. Hit'de hole in yer hat was what made me smile." And the old man put his hand in his pocket, and closed one eye, as if he was going to aim at something.
"Perhaps hit's my clothes you is smilin' about," said the would-be colored Ben. Thompson, in a lower tone of voice.
"No, sah, hit'de place on your black carcass whar dar am no close, whar 'nuses me," and a clicking sound conveyed the news that old Mose had cocked his pistol.
"I wudt glad to heah you make dat satisfyin' explanation. I harbors no hard feelings now yer 'galained de matter. Good mornin', sah," said the bad darky, as he walked off. After he had made me smile, and the old man stopped, looked back and said to himself:
"De fool nighat 'at bites his furb at dat old man in 'tinkin' graveyard dirt on heeself, for a fac'."

The great ladies of the Faubourg St. Germain, in Paris, the favorite quarter of the old aristocracy, usually so modest and retiring, and so averse to anything that savors of common and vulgar publicity, have suddenly changed their time wares, and now seem to have but one idea in their heads, and that is "to appear in public." Already two concerts have taken place, at which the femmes du monde, headed by the Vicomtesse de Tredern and the Marquise de St. Paul, have sung and played to paying audiences—of course for charitable purposes. At the last of these concerts was the curiosity of the multitude to see these great ladies that 15,000 francs was taken at the doors, and one unfortunate ticket, which had been forgotten or mislaid till the last moment, was raffled for and fetched 300 francs.

The Ice Question.

Where do you buy your ice? The Mayville Artificial Ice Company is selling the best ice in the world at less price than is usually asked for inferior ice. No enlightened person making any pretension to cleanliness will use any other but the manufactured ice. It is clean, clear and tasteless, free from all impurities, and is made from distilled water. Send your orders to the office on Wall street, or give them to the driver of the delivery wagon. m17d

In the Salons of Fashion white teeth are more frequently seen than formerly. This is because our ladies have given the seal of their approbation to santon, foremost among the toilet articles. This superlatively pure and salutary preparation cleanses the foulest decomposition of the teeth, removes impurities which obscure their natural hue, strengthens them and makes the gums sturdy and hard coral, and communicates sweetness and rosinness to the mouth.

"THE ETERNAL TRUTHS"

Of the Lost Cause Again Voiced by Jeff Davis

In a Letter of Regret, Showing That the Principles of State's Rights
Still Have a Warm Place in the Old Man's Heart.

ROME, Ga., May 17.—There is to be a military encampment of State troops here in July. Among those whose presence was expected was Jefferson Davis. This morning the Courier prints the statement that the ex-Confederate chief could not come. In a letter Mr. Davis says:

"To see the veterans of the war for State sovereignty and the sons of those who so nobly maintained the cause would be to me a pleasure of which it is with sincere regret that I find myself deprived. Borne down with overwhelming numbers, Southern resistance to wrong and usurpation proved unavailing, but believing as I did and do, that the cause was just, that we were but asserting the eternal truths on which our fathers founded American independence, and which sooner or later I hope and believe the American people will reassert, I can not admit that our was a lost cause. It may not be, I hope it never will be necessary to vindicate that cause by force of arms, but when the passions of the day have subsided and the reasons replaced truth upon her throne, our will again be recognized as the union of free, sovereign, and independent States, held together by a common interest and the noble desire to transmit the blessings of liberty to our posterity forever."

PRYOR BLACKBALLED.

Said to be the Result of Defending a Murderer.

New York, May 17.—The action taken by the Bar Association of this city at its meeting on Tuesday night in blackballing General Roger A. Pryor, who was a candidate for membership, has excited much discussion in the legal and other circles in this city and Brooklyn, and much regret is expressed at the result of the vote. A well known lawyer said this evening that the vote astonished him. He could suggest no other reason for Pryor's blackballing than a narrow anted prejudice among the few unknown who always obnoxiously exercise their club privileges.

"There are about seven hundred members in the association," said Mr. F. R. Coudert, "and the fact that the attendance at the meeting was rather light and only the required number of black balls were cast, robs the result of any significance. It is suggested that the black balling sprang from a feeling occasioned by Mr. Pryor's action in defense of Carey's murder. Why I can not understand."

"This is a very delicate subject," said General Pryor, "yet it would be affectionate for me to say that I do not feel hurt. I can say, however, that speaking in common sense I am glad, as it has brought to me the expression of the kind feelings and well wishes existing among my brethren of the profession. The flood of sympathy with which this occurrence has surrounded me takes away the sting."

TIME, PLACE AND WEAPONS

Chosen for the Approaching Duel over an Old Bouquet.

BOSWELL, Ind., May 17.—Further information has been gleaned by the Press reporter concerning the trouble resulting from Mrs. Jeff. Davis giving a bouquet to Spies at the close of the trial. He was told by a man who saw the letter that Col. H. C. Harris, named as the second of Spies, today received a letter from J. A. McGuire of Mobile, Ala., stating that Col. McGuire, the challenged party, had selected him as assistant; that Col. McGuire accepted the challenge, named navy revolvers as the weapons, May 20th as the time, and "Palmer's Inn, in the Walpole river, four miles north of Terre Haute, Ind., as the place. The letter was couched in gentlemanly terms, but was right to the point. It is said that Mrs. Davis objected to her friend McGuire placing his life in jeopardy for so trivial a matter, and has written Mr. Spies for a more detailed account of the bouquet presentation, that her mind may be refreshed, and, if she find the story true, that she may interpose and save her friend from the impending danger.
